PHOTO COMPETITION

Do you like taking photos?

Exhibition

15–24 April 2011

@ Teddington Baptist Church

Open to all ages & abilities

Prizes will be awarded

This photo competition is part of a NEW nationwide initiative looking at the impact of the Bible on our language and culture.

Capture a Bible verse in a photo!

How would YOU illustrate a verse from the Bible? Get your camera or mobile phone out and start snapping!

Your inspiration can come from anywhere - nature, people, your home, colour, etc. Take a photo that you think illustrates a verse from the Bible.

Open to everyone, whatever your age, ability or beliefs. Join in and tell your friends too!

Not got a Bible?

Exhibition & Prizes

We will display all the photos in a public exhibition at Teddington Baptist Church from 15-24 April. Winners will be chosen by the public voting for their favourite.

There are 3 prizes! A winner from each age category will be announced on 23 April. Further details will be sent later.

How to Enter

Send up to 5 photos (maximum print size 10 x 8 cm) to the address on the back by post, or drop them into the office (open Mon-Fri 9-5).

On the back of EACH PHOTO please put:

- Your name
- Your telephone number
- Age category (under 12s, 13-18s, 18+)
- The Bible verse it illustrates, for example

'I chose you to bear fruit' John 15v16

There is a single entry fee per person of £2. Place this in an envelope with the entry form. Cash or cheques (payable to 'Teddington Baptist Church').

Mark the envelope 'Photo Competition'.

Please collect your photos from the office after the exhibition, between 25-28th April.

The organisers reserve the right not to display photos that may be considered to be offensive.
