

FORTHCOMING 2012

Jonah

Poet in Extremis

Whichever way you look at it, landing up in the belly of a fish is a sad end for a prophet to come to. In fact, it wasn't the end for Jonah – just another chapter in a troubled life.

This is not just any story about one man's frailty and cowardice: it is the story of everyone who has felt like running away from their destiny.

£11.99

ISBN: 978-0-7152-0941-7

About Richard Littledale

The Rev Richard Littledale is Pastor of Teddington Baptist Church in Middlesex and is a graduate of Spurgeon's College, London and Saint Andrews University. A tutor at The College of Preachers, he has a particular interest in innovative and effective communication. His preaching has featured on BBC Radio 4 and on BBC Radio 2's Pause For Thought.

His award winning blog, Richard Littledale's Preacher's A-Z: Preaching from the coalface can be found at <http://richardlittledale.wordpress.com/>

How to order

Richard Littledale's books are available from good bookshops, direct from www.standrewpress.com or by ordering direct from Norwich Books and Music (please see address, telephone and e-mail below).

To qualify for a special pre-order discount of £1 off Who Needs Words? - valid until 30 September 2011 - simply order direct from Norwich Books & Music and quote reference SAR11.

Norwich Books and Music
13a Wellledon Park Road
Norwich
Norfolk
NR6 5DR
Tel: 01 603 785925
Email: orders@norwichbooksandmusic.co.uk

WWW.STANDREWSPRESS.COM

Preaching with Richard Littledale

Preacher's A-Z

A practical dip-in guide to the key elements of preaching.

Packed with fresh ideas and all the essentials a preacher needs before stepping up to the lectern, this brilliant handbook contains confidence-boosting material for both the experienced preacher and the novice alike.

Features

- An A-Z of preaching
- 26 illustrations by John Paterson
- Tips on before, during and after preaching

A must-have companion for all worship leaders!

£9.99

ISBN: 978-0-7152-0853-3

Stale Bread?

A Handbook for Speaking the Story

Richard Littledale explores the straightforward and rewarding techniques, the strengths and weaknesses of narrative preaching and helps you decide how and when it would help you to bring a new freshness to your preaching.

- Brings excitement back to preaching
- Brings to life the people and events of the Bible
- How to use first, second and third-person voices in preaching
- How and when to preach in this way – and when not to preach in this way!
- Sample sermons are included and their strengths and weaknesses are analysed
- Guidance on learning the techniques
- Guidance on introducing these styles to congregations

£8.99

ISBN: 978-0-7152-0835-9

Who Needs Words?

A Guide to Christian Communication

With an extended introduction by Nick Baines

A practical and inspiring guide to enable you to enhance the various ways in which you go about communicating verbally, visually, through social networking and in writing.

This book provides practical advice for every situation.

Published October 2011

Pre-publication offer — see 'How To Order' section
£9.99

ISBN: 978-0-7152-0943-1